FATHER'S DAY LUNCHEON

We had a great lunch—turkey sandwiches, potato chips, and cake from Jimmy John's Gourmet Sandwiches—and a great gathering. Most of us played cornhole games and card games—special thanks to Deborah Daniels for making ties for men. Everyone enjoyed themselves.

On June 15th, 29 attended a ball game at the Astros. We sat together in two rows, facing the third base. Unfortunately, it was not the Astros' time. The Astros trailed by 11 before scoring five runs in the seventh inning. The game ended with the Astros losing to Detroit, 13-5. We had a good time but were sad to see the Astros lose.

My Colorado Vacation Alone

By Carolyn Dill

I have not been to Colorado since before my husband died (2019) and have not camped in a tent at least several years before that (2012?).

I forced myself to return to that lovely state even if no one wanted to be with me. This is a very common problem for us widowed seniors!

I had nine nights and ten days there and back. Three days were spent in a tent. While trying to figure out my tent setup, a dutiful teen wanted to help me, but I told him this trip was for me to figure out how to do everything myself, so if he had set up my tent, I would not learn. Ha

It’s been three months since my knee surgery, so my right knee protested all the steep trails. I hiked one to two miles of trails. The hardest for my knee was driving, but I conquered it all and had a beautiful time!
